

Sightings

PRISCILLA Presley at the Valentino show in Santa Barbara, looking younger than her daughter Lisa-Marie ... LATINA pop star Thalia dancing energetically in a full ball gown at the Casita Maria benefit at the Mandarin Oriental ... MAYOR Bloomberg and seven dinner guests at T-Bar Steak & Lounge on Third Avenue ... REINALDO and Carolina Herrera at the Waverly Inn amid the tables of Bruce Weber and his babushka and Salman Rushdie with three muses, one Asian, one black and one white ... ANGELINA Jolie running a gantlet of paparazzi at Lever House Restaurant to dine with her lawyers and agents.

New youth idol

THE appeal of Don Rickles (above) crosses all demographics. When the insulting 82-year-old comic opened his three-night gig at Town Hall, the crowd included Matthew Broderick, Chris Rock, Jerry Seinfeld and Brad Grey. Two rows behind them was gender-bending downtown comedian Murray Hill, who was seen with pen and paper taking notes from the master. Rickles later received rousing applause from the clientele at Elaine's as he walked in with an entourage.