

Aug. 23: Good music didn't go to waste at a Coaching Week party at the Breakers in Newport, R.I. The Bob Hardwick Orchestra had everybody dancing from cocktails on. The host was the Preservation Society of Newport County.

1. MINNIE CUSHING COLEMAN.
2. DIANE and NICHOLA'S BROWN.
3. GRACE CAVNAR.
4. EMILY and JEPHRA H. WADE.
5. HENRY and WYNDOLTON.
6. RODERICK O'HANLEY and JESSICA MORELAND.
7. WASHINGTON IRVING and a partner.
8. SARAH NAVARRO and MARK HATIS.
9. DIANA SYLVIA and PAUL SZAPARY.
10. BARBARA VAN BEUREN.
11. ANNE R. KETTLE.
12. PHYLLIS TREVOR HIGGERSON.
13. ROSEMARY PONZO and EDWARD ANKUDAYICH.
14. RUTH BUCHANAN WHEELER and DICK PILKINTON.
15. DIANA PRINCE, left, and c.z. QUEST.
16. From left, BEVERLY LITTLE, DAVID E. P. LINDH and LOUIS PLANCONE.
17. From left, DIANA OENRUI KIKER, GEORGE A. WEYMOUTH, ELIZABETH PRINCE DE RAMEL and MOLLY DE RAMEL.
18. From left, BONNIE MATHESON, LYNDIA LINDH and LADY NICHOLSON.
19. Guests in the music room.
20. TONI LAIRD.
21. NOREEN DREXEL, left, and COUNTESS FERDINANDINE ELTZ, whose grandfather Cornelius Vanderbilt II built the Breakers.
22. CAROLINE BURNELL, left, and DAISY PRINCE.
23. GLADYS SZAPARY and ALFRED O. VANDERBILT.
24. From left, DENNIS and CORAUE CHARBLOU PAUL, WY LARSSON and CHESTER WEBER.
25. JANE ELEGASH, left, and ALA ISHAM.
26. DORRANCE HAMILTON, a Campbell Soup heiress.
27. CHARLOTTE and S. TUCKER.

They Danced All Night

Interrupting the drives to honor the drivers.

Bill Cunningham
EVENING HOURS

