Saratoga The National Museum of Thoroughbred Racing and Hall of Fame's Annual Ball is considered the Saratoga season's premier social event—attracting the "who's who" of the American and international racing community. Everyone seemed to have an absolute ball at this year, as guests danced the night away to The Bob Hardwick Sound Sensation. Partaking in the festivities: Chris and Binkie Orthwein, chairman Beverly Steinman, Jamie Figg, museum director Joe Aulisi and his wife, Jill, museum president Stella Thayer and her husband, Bronson, plus Webb Egerton and Matthew Firestone, and many others!
