

WWD FRIDAY

Paloma's Red Alert • Arnault Over the Rainbow • A New York i

SHOW

By Aileen Mehle

Carroll
Petrie

Speaking of Carroll Petrie, what do she, MOMA president Agnes Gund and pugilist— OK, fighter — Oscar De La Hoya have in common? If you said nothing, you'd be wrong. They're all honorees at the Casita Maria Fiesta 2000 dinner dance at the Plaza on Tuesday. The chairpeople are a merry mix of Kissingers, Eisenhowers, Rockefellers, Hearsts — and John Leguizamo, por favor! Bob Hardwick and his orchestra will play everything from Berlin to Broadway to the Back Street Boys and beyond.