

STAY

By Aileen Mehle

Catherine Egan and Laurent Sidon married in Nantucket, and the island really rocked. Just to let you in on it, the bride's father is Michael Egan, who founded Alamo Car Rentals, which he just sold for many, many millions. The wedding celebration was a three-day affair held at the bride's family's sprawling new 70-acre estate. Society band leader Bob Hardwick and a four-piece string orchestra provided the wedding music, and then Bob, his 15-piece orchestra, four singers and his rock 'n' roll band, stayed on to play at the reception, which lasted until five in the morning. All that late night toe-tapping on the dance floor must be how "90210" actress Tiffany Amerber Thiessen stays svelte. But the real showstopper of the lavish affair was Celine Dion, who sang out her heart and soul and had the guests swooning and palpitating. Dear
