

NEW YORK POST

Surprise wedding

THE 650 guests at last night's Bronx Botanical Gardens Conservatory Ball didn't know they were also going to a wedding reception. Event chair Mai Halingby decided to take advantage of having the flowers and the music of society band-leader Bob Hardwick on tap, and invited 20 special friends to join her and longtime beau Ridgeley Harrison in the rose garden for their wedding before the main event. I guess that's how the rich stay rich — they never waste a thing.